GREAT BENEFITS. LOW PREMIUMS.

Available to all federal employees and annuitants

For 75 years, SAMBA has been serving federal employees, annuitants, and their families. SAMBA is a not-for-profit employee benefit association that was established by FBI Special Agents to obtain the benefit of group insurance plans for its members. SAMBA was one of the original plans in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program when it began in 1960. Previously limited to FBI, Secret Service and other federal law enforcement agencies, today SAMBA Plans are available to all federal employees and annuitants.
